Several factors account for the high position occupied by Frunze in Soviet historiography. He was a military hero. He had a long record of revolutionary activity. He died at an early age and did not become involved in the purges and other excesses of Stalin's later career. In short, Frunze's short, active life and his contributions to the revolution suited him almost ideally to the role of historical hero. Western scholars have neglected him, probably, for a number of reasons.
