A lease purchase is a written agreement between a landlord and tenant giving the tenant an option to purchase the property at some future point in time. The terms of these agreements can vary a great deal. They may or may not include a set price. When they do, the price might be the appraised value at the time of purchase, or another agreed-upon value.

A lease Purchase Agreement is a great option when somebody is looking to buy a house but cannot pay the lump sum money at once. In this case, you take the property on lease and go on depositing monthly payments, a portion of which will go to the down payment of the house. You own the house after the end of the lease term. This is to stress here that these contracts are also applicable for commercial properties and equipment.
